

COME MEET YOUR NEIGHBORS AND LEARN ABOUT THE COMMUNITY!

30th Avenue Memories

Annabel Short

Dr. Robyn Spencer

30th Avenue Subway Station

Five years ago, local blogger and journalist Annabel Short interviewed more than 50 shopkeepers and residents from the 30th Avenue area, telling the “story of the street” one person at a time. Join Annabel, several of her interview subjects, and historian Dr. Robyn Spencer for an afternoon of discussion and celebration of this diverse and ever-changing community!

Bring your own photos and memorabilia of Astoria to share, and make your mark on our oversized map. The Queens Memory team will be on hand to digitize your items for inclusion in the Archives at Queens Library and save them to a thumb drive you can take home.

ADMISSION IS FREE.

This event is part of the Queens Memory: 50 Years of Integration program, made possible with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.
